

Re: JAKE

The first day I met Dori was after Adam and Cheney had fought.

When discussing the possibility of reintroducing them she said to me, "but isn't the point of pit bulls to fight the the death?"

I was appalled but held my tongue.

I feel that her bias against pits has encouraged the decision to kill him. I do not think it is okay to have someone with those views as our director but right now Jake is our main concern.

Please help him by writing to Jeanne
